

1985

Natzweiler Memorial at Struthof, France

THE HOLOCAUST: 40 Years Later

A series of provocative lectures, special events and credit courses commemorating the most fascinating and horrible event in history.

ALL LECTURES AND SPECIAL EVENTS
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

UNIVERSITY CREDIT AVAILABLE

SSU students may enroll in a 1 unit course listed as:
HIST 370 (2); SOC 305; PSY 361 (1); LIBS 300.

Non-students may enroll for credit; for information call:
SSU Office of Extended Education, 707/663-2394

All Classes meet at 12 noon - 1:40 p.m. in Stevenson 1002
Sonoma State University

February 6 Opening Class

Explanation of course and requirements, followed by film, "Genocide" and discussion.

February 27 Film: "Triumph of the Will"

Followed by panel discussion with Professors Adler, Beard and Steiner.

March 13 Holocaust Survivors

Jeanetta Sagan, John Steiner and Ann Weinstock meet with the class.

March 20 "The Critical Cutting Issues of the Holocaust"

Professor Konnilyn Feig is a noted international scholar of the Holocaust and author of "Hitler's Death Camps: The Sanity of Madness" and teaches history at San Francisco State University.

March 27 "Destruction of Eastern European Jewish Culture"

Speaker: Professor Eli Katz

April 10 "Revisiting the SS"

Speaker: Professor John Steiner, followed by a multi-media presentation of "The Stanford Simulated Prison Experiment"

April 17 "Courage to Care: The Rescuers in Nazi-Occupied Europe"

The speaker is Professor Samuel P. Oliner, director of "The Altruistic Personality, the Study of Rescuers in Nazi-Occupied Europe". He teaches Sociology at Humboldt State University.

April 24 "America and the Holocaust"

Speaker: Professor Les Adler followed by the film "California Reich".

SPECIAL EVENTS

April 9 Holocaust Songs:
Teach In/Performance by Dan Lev. Student Union at 8 p.m.

April 19 Film: "Judgement at Nuremberg"
Presented by the Sonoma Film Institute

April 21 SONOMA COUNTY HOLOCAUST COMMEMORATIVE
University Commons at 2:30 p.m.

March 20 - April 21 Art Exhibit
Works on Holocaust themes by SSU art students in the Reuben Salazar Library.