

1987

THE SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY FACULTY HOLOCAUST STUDIES COMMITTEE
AND THE ALLIANCE FOR THE STUDY OF THE HOLOCAUST PRESENT
SOME OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA'S FOREMOST SCHOLARS ON

SURVIVING THE HOLOCAUST

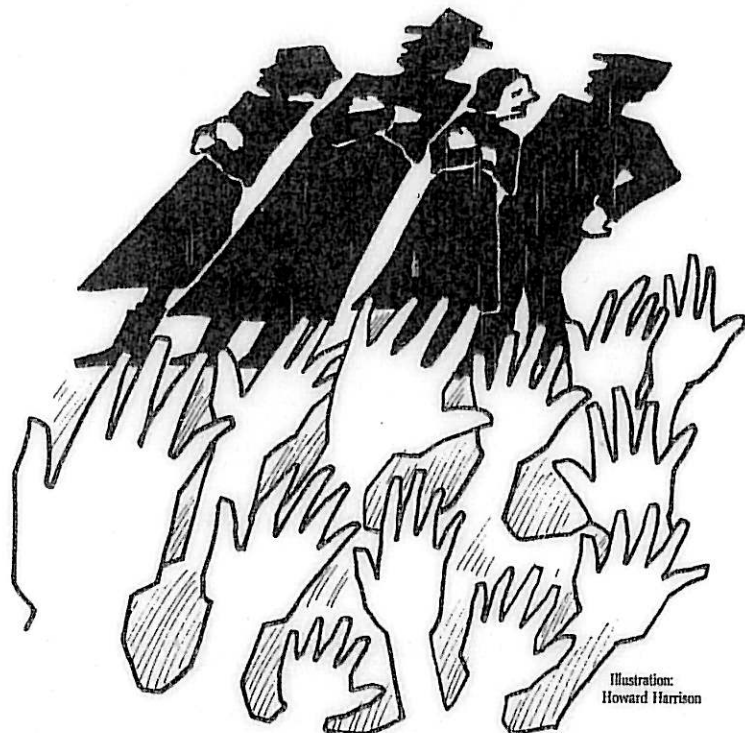

Illustration:
Howard Harrison

LIVING THROUGH GENOCIDE AS SEEN IN HISTORY, PSYCHOLOGY, SOCIOLOGY AND LITERATURE FREE LECTURE SERIES • OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

These lectures may be attended as a course for University credit. The course, 2 units, is cross listed in: Education, Foreign Language, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, and the Hutchins School. Check department schedules for course numbers. Persons who are not registered SSU students may also take the course for credit through the Open University program. Please call Extended Education, (707) 664-2394, for additional information.

PUBLIC LECTURES TUESDAYS, 4 - 5:40 P.M. STEVENSON HALL 1002

Feb 3 - Opening Class Orientation to course

THE SETTING

Feb 10 - Europe Prior to World War II: Background to Nazi Germany Bob Brown, Ph.D., Professor of History, SSU

Feb 17 - Anti-Semitism: Religious & cultural roots Sanford Lowe, D.Min., Professor of Humanities, Santa Rosa Junior College

Feb 24 - Cultural Prejudice to Racial Tribalism Dennis Harris, Ph.D., Professor of History, SSU

Mar 3 - Class discussion

THE EVENT

Mar 10 - The Holocaust: The reality Jacob Boas, Ph.D., Associate Director, Holocaust Library & Research Center of San Francisco

Mar 17 - Abandonment: The world turned its back Les Adler, Ph.D., Professor of History, SSU

Mar 24 - Testimony: How did victims survive? Panel of survivors: John Steiner, Ph.D., Professor of Sociology, SSU; Renee Molho, M.D.; Mira Shelub; Odette Meyers, Ph.D.

Mar 31 - Rescuers: The people who helped Samuel Oliner, Ph.D., Professor of Sociology, Humboldt State University

Apr 7 - Resistance: Psychology of survival in concentration camps, ghettos, and in hiding Hirsh Frankiel, Ph.D., Consultant, Organizational Development

Apr 21 - Class discussion

THE OUTCOMES

Apr 28 - Holocaust in Literature: Novels, plays, poetry Martin Blaze, Ph.D., Professor of English, SSU

May 5 - After Surviving the Holocaust: Adjusting to psychological, sociological and existential - the personal view Panel of survivors: Paul Benko, Ph.D., Professor of Biology, SSU; Gloria H. Lyon; M. Michael Thaler, M.D.; Gerald Rosenstein

May 12 - After the Holocaust: Political consequences Fred Rosenbaum, M.A., Director, Lehrhaus Judaica of Berkeley, Stanford and San Francisco

May 19 - Class discussion and wrap-up

SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL SSU PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE - (707) 664-2122