Annual Newlsetter 2014

Dear Friends of the Alliance,

Warmest greetings for a Happy New Year! We thank everyone who attended and supported our 30th anniversary Lecture Series event, as well as honoring Professor Myrna Goodman on her retirement. We are also grateful to those who supported our fundraising efforts for new projects for digitization of our Lecture Series videos, a Lecture Series documentary, the Armenian Endowment, and student internships to Rwanda. Once again, we offered a superb lecture series and guest speakers, as well as supporting our local Yom Hashoah commemoration, the Jewish World Watch Walk Against Genocide, and the commemoration of the 20th anniversary of the Rwandan Genocide. The Alliance also co-sponsored Je reviews de la vérité (I Return from the Truth) written by Charlotte Delbo and performed in French with supertitles by Companie Propero Miranda on April 2, 2014. Delbo was a French writer chiefly known for her memoirs of her time as a prisoner in Auschwitz, where she was sent for her activities as a member of the French resistance.

This year brings yet another genocide milestone with the 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide. A documentary, Orphans of the Genocide, will be shown at the Lecture Series and at an evening showing at Congregation Shomrei Torah co-sponsored by the Social Action Committee.

Special appreciation is once again extended to the Jewish Community Federation of Santa, The Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties whose generous grant for a sixth consecutive year will support the Robert L. Harris Memorial Lecture.

With deepest gratitude,

Christyne Davidian
President, Alliance for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide

Alliance Mission Statement

Our Mission

Honor the experience and preserve the memory of the innocent victims, survivors, and rescuers impacted by the tragedy of genocide
Support Holocaust and Genocide education in conjunction with the Center for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide at Sonoma State University

Our Work

Attract, collaborate, and coordinate with scholars, survivors, and experts
Outreach to our community, schools, and survivor groups
Seek funding and support methods to preserve memory

Our Vision

Inspire a "never again" moral stance that focuses on our common humanity
Promote personal action and proactive prevention awareness of the causes of intolerance, genocide, and denial

Report from the Center for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide at Sonoma State

This was a notable year for the Center and a significant one for me as well. In January, we celebrated the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Lecture Series with a gala event in Cotati. The event also noted my official retirement from my faculty appointment as the Academic Coordinator of the Holocaust and Genocide Lecture Series. I was overwhelmed by the outpouring of kind words from my former colleagues and the beautiful plaque the Alliance Board and Pacific Auction presented to me.

In addition to marking the personal fulfillment I experienced during my tenure as the Center Director, I was very honored by the outpouring of affection from so many of the important people who, over the past 30 years, have contributed the time, talent and treasure that assured the success of our program. It was satisfying to see and celebrate with old friends and loyal program supporters. I am pleased to be able to continue to serve as the Center Director as an emerita faculty member.

I would like to thank each member, past and present, of the Alliance Board for your hard work through the years. Your devotion to our educational mission has been a crucial contribution to our success.

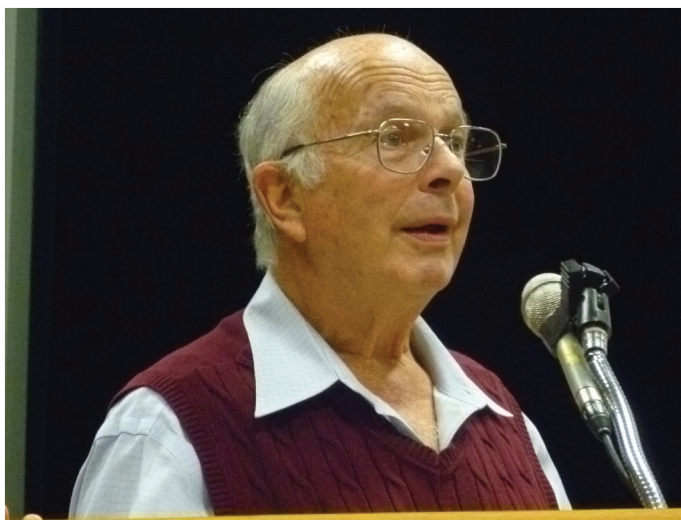

Sadly, this year we lost our founding Center Director, Dr. John Steiner. John was the moral force behind the Center and his intellectual rigor and stubborn dedication to Holocaust and genocide education inspired our work in both the classroom and in the Lecture Series programming. We also mourn the passing of George Farber this year, a loyal supporter of our work and a devoted peace activist. We will miss his quiet grace and devotion to peace.

The 2015 is the 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide. In addition to our annual Armenian Genocide lecture, we will commemorate this anniversary by featuring a documentary film which explores the experiences of the orphans of the Armenian Genocide.

Both lectures should be very compelling given the anniversary of the Genocide. Additionally, the lecture honoring Adele Zygielbaum this spring will be given by Professor Christopher Browning, a prominent scholar of the Holocaust.

I look forward to seeing you at the 2015 Lecture Series.

Lecture Series Academic Coordinator Report

It is very gratifying to consistently hear from our students that our lecture series is a transformative experience, and that it moves them to make a difference in the world. Several of our lectures from the 2014 series made an emphatic impression on our audience. Prof. Carol Rittner, who delivered the Robert L. Harris Memorial Lecture, did a masterful job conveying the role of gender in genocide. Our classes referred to her lecture for weeks after the event. Students were moved by the powerful presentation offered by Irfan Mirza on his role as a negotiator in the Bosnian war. Almudena Bernebeu brought us her unique perspective on the Guatemalan Genocide. Her audience was captivated by her account of the struggle to bring General Rios Montt to justice.

Our good friend and strong supporter, The Honorable Mathilde Mukantabana, once again gifted our audience with her tale of Rwanda's horror and healing. Ambassador Mukantabana brings something new to her presentation every year. Once again, we were very fortunate to offer Prof. James Waller's superb analysis of Becoming Evil. Students are consistently inspired by his presentation and scholarly work. Prof. Sergio La Porta returned to deliver his exceptionally comprehensive and compelling account of the Armenian Genocide for the annual Armenian Genocide Memorial Lecture. It would be very hard to imagine the lecture series without Holocaust survivors Paul Schwarzbart and Hans Angress. I am always pleased to see how deeply our students are moved by their experiences.

Our own professors are the backbone of the series. We provide the theoretical and historical context essential to understanding the essence of genocide. Professors Greg Sarris, Eric Williams, Stephen Bittner, Barry Preisler, Myrna Goodman and I contributed to students' appreciation and comprehension of the complex subject of genocide.

Our purpose was very well served by the 31st annual lecture series. Our 2015 series, "A Century of Genocide," features some exciting and innovative presentations. Prof. Christopher Browning will deliver the Adele Zygielbaum Memorial Lecture on "Revisiting the Perpetrators." Prof. Alex Alvarez will discuss "Climate Change and Genocide," while Dr. Elaine Leeder will take us on her personal journey to Lithuania. Dr. Ana Bracic will look at "The Plight of the Roma," and Dr. Erik Nielsen will examine the genocide in Darfur. We will pay special attention to the 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide with presentations by Prof. Sergio LaPorta and Bared Maronian. I hope you will join me in learning from some of the nation's outstanding genocide scholars.

The 30th Anniversary of the Holocaust and Genocide Lecture Series Event

On Sunday, January 26, 2014, the Alliance for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide and the SSU Center for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide co-sponsored an event, “Preserving the Legacy of Holocaust and Genocide Education at Sonoma State University in Celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the Lecture Series on the Holocaust and Genocide and the Retirement of Professor Myrna Goodman” which honored Past Faculty, Alliance Board Members, and Program Supporters.

It was dedicated to the memories of Robert L. Harris and Paul V. Benko for their vision, heart, and dedication—their counsel, compassion and wisdom continue to guide us. It included an acknowledgment of Sylvia Sucher, who quietly serves as the inspiration, guiding light and very soul of the Alliance for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide.

The afternoon’s program included the presentation of a Golden Resolution by the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors and proclamations from the City of Santa Rosa and the City of Petaluma. The keynote address was delivered by Her Excellency Professor Mathilde Mukantabana, Ambassador from the Republic of Rwanda to the United States, a former member of the Alliance Board who is now one of our Senior Advisors.

It also included an acknowledgement of Professor Emerita Myrna Goodman on the occasion of her retirement from Sonoma State and a live and silent auction coordinated by Pacific Auction Company’s Steve Godfryd and Chiaya Rawlins, an Alliance Board Member.

As you will see from the photos included in this issue, it was a lively event that was attended by over 125 supporters of the Alliance.

As part of the event, the Alliance announced the creation of four very special funds to support its work into the next century: a $50,000 fund to cover the cost of digitizing videotapes of the lectures many of which are in Beta and VHS formats, a $25,000 fund to create a PBS quality documentary about the series, a third fund established in conjunction with our sister organization, the Friends of Rwanda Association (FORA), to create an internship for Sonoma State students to travel to Rwanda to work with survivors of the genocide, and a fourth fund to establish an Armenian Genocide endowment. We hope that many of you will consider making a donation to an existing Alliance fund or one of these specialized funds in the coming year. Your support has been the key to this collaboration between the community and the University and continues to be crucial to sustaining the exceptional quality and reputation of the lecture series.

With gratitude,

Barbara Lesch McCaffry,
Treasurer, Alliance for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide
Emerita Professor, Hutchins School of Liberal Studies

Alliance History

The Alliance for the Study of the Holocaust was formed in 1982 on behalf of the victims and survivors of the Holocaust and the need to tell their stories and for others to learn from their experiences. Those who began this collaborative effort between the community and members of the Sonoma State University faculty promised to let the world know of the atrocities that had occurred. The initial intention was primarily to learn the facts, act on them, and never forget.

As a result of these efforts, a highly successful annual lecture series on the Holocaust and Genocide was created at Sonoma State University. As a University-community partnership, the Board includes members of the community, University faculty and administrators, and students who have participated in the Lecture Series.

In 2010, the name of the Alliance was changed to the Alliance for the Study of the Holocaust and Genocide to reflect its revised mission and its continuing educational commitment to include all those affected by genocide.

We extend our sincere thanks and goodbyes to board member Brian Boyajian, representing Armenians of the North Bay, who has served on the Board for many years and whose valuable support will be greatly missed. We look forward to welcoming several new Board members in the coming year, many of whom joined us for our first Open House for prospective Board Members and Volunteers on October 12, 2014 at the home of Alliance Board member Flora Lee Ganzler.
